A fun fact about Mahatma Gandhi is that despite being known for his powerful speeches and leadership, he initially suffered from a severe fear of public speaking. He would reportedly panic and be unable to speak at all in public.

He received the title "Bhausa" (meaning scholar) from Kashi Vidyapeeth during his graduation.

Bhagat Singh was born in 1907 and was deeply affected by the Jallianwala Bagh massacre at a young age. He was inspired by figures like Kartar Singh Sarabha and the Ghadar Party.

Subhas Chandra Bose was an Indian nationalist whose defiance of British authority in India made him a hero among many Indians, but his wartime alliance with Nazi Germany and Fascist Japan left a legacy viewed by authoritarian, anti-Semitism, and military failure.

Bal Gangadhar Tilak (23 July 1894 – 1 August 1920), also known as Lokmanya, was an Indian nationalist, teacher, and independence activist. He was part of the Lal-Bal-Pal trio and is regarded as "The Father of the Indian Uprising" by the British. The late Lokmanya Tilak was "accepted by the people as their leader" Mahatma Gandhi called him "The Master of Modern India."

Certificate From CRY (Child rights and You):

30th December, 2025

To whomsoever it may concern

This is to certify that Mr. Mohd Aadil Mohd Shamim Shaikh has volunteered with our organization Child Rights and You (CRY) west from November 2025 to December 2025 and has successfully completed 46 hours of volunteering with the Volunteer Engagement team.

During the internship period, he actively supported the organization in various administrative functions, including documentation, data handling, coordination, distribution and office-related tasks. He showed a sincere approach to work and a strong willingness to learn.

We believe that this internship has helped him in understanding the issues pertaining to children and child rights in India. We trust that he will remain in touch with CRY and will always be an ardent advocate of child rights.

We wish him the best of luck for all his future endeavors!

Child Rights & You (CRY)
